

Coming November 2013!

Astrologer Micki Michaels and her ex-FBI-agent boyfriend put their hot chemistry to good use as a crime-busting Odd Couple at a futuristic costume ball. It's New Year's Eve and the 25th anniversary of Micki's longevity association.

Who is that masked man who will stop at nothing to steal the "secret" of long life and slow aging? Hiding behind which mask? Or is he?

JOYCE MASON's debut novel is "charming ...a page-turner ... a guilty pleasure ... a rollercoaster of emotions ...provocatively woven with fiction and facts, past and future, New Age and pragmatism."
